

Support NagaWorld Employees

NagaCorp operates as NagaWorld in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. With an average revenue of $141 million USD a year from 2006-2008 www.nagaworld.com. NagaWorld employees get paid less than $115 dollars a month in wages. NagaWorld has violated a number of Cambodian labor laws and practice discrimination between Cambodian workers and foreign workers who do the same work.

NagaWorld employees formed a union to address the needs of employees and to draw employer's attention a number of discriminatory practices and violation of the labor laws the company practices.

After years of attempts to negotiate with management over wages and better work conditions, NagaWorld management on 26th of February 2009, terminated and dismissed the employment of 14 legally elected and certified officers of the union and other union activists and shop stewards of the NagaWorld Union, an affiliate of CTSWF under the guise of the global crisis.

NagaCorp Reaps the Profits While Workers Gets Nothing:

NagaCorp, a HongKong based company, registered in the Cayman Island. It was able to gain 70-year long license and a 40 year monopoly within a 200 km radius of Phnom Penh with no restriction for expansion. It was able to gain a low fixed monthly gaming tax until 2018, for example in 2007, NagaCorp paid only $142,383 in tax to the Cambodian Government.

NagaCorp operates a casino with 175 gaming tables and 351 gaming machine stations and a hotel employed a work force of 2,753 employees and operating 365 days.

NagaCorp/NagaWorld Employees Need Your Support:

- Reinstatement of the 14 dismissed union activists unconditionally and immediately.
- Allow and facilitate normal trade union activity as prescribed by the Cambodian labor law in NagaWorld Casino and Hotel, Phnom Penh.
- Engage in constructive industrial dialogue and negotiation.
- Ensure the welfare and well being of all workers and employees of NagaWorld.
- Abide by all aspects of the Cambodian labor law completely.

14 Union Leaders Terminated by NagaWorld

We ask you to convey your support of the employees by requesting the above demands to NagaWorld: President/CEO: Dr. Chen Lip Keong at (855) 23 228 822 or lipkeong@lipkeong.com or ceo@nagacorp.com and Human Resource Director: Gregory Goh at gregorygoh@nagaworld.com

For Information or questions, please call, CTSWF office at (855) 12 986 019 or ctswf_labor@yahoo.com